Determination of the legal status of a token (Legal Opinion)

Support for ICO/Token Sale/IEO/STO

- Development of documentation for websites
- SAFT and other agreements with investors
- Determination of the corporate structure of the group of companies
- Support for the registration of legal entities
- Audit of marketing policy in terms of legal risks

Support for licensing of regulated activities

- Advising on the type of license and jurisdiction for obtaining it, including:
 - gambling licenses,
 - licenses to virtual currency service providers (exchanger / exchange / investment consultant),
 - investment fund licenses (for qualified investors);
- Preparation of an application supporting documents for obtaining a license, including AML documentation, platform use policy, investment memorandum and others
- Assistance in the selection of the necessary personnel for obtaining a license
- Representation of the client's interests before local government bodies

Determination of the legal status of a token (Legal Opinion)

→ We will develop a Legal Opinion that:

- allows the crypto exchange and the issuer to obtain a qualified opinion of a third party regarding the token
- is needed in order to confirm or refute the classification of a token as a security, including on the basis of the Howey Test.

Without a preliminary determination of the legal status of the token, it is impossible to exclude the risk of exposure to the law governing classical securities and potential penalties.
